Local News.

Patronize your home merchants.

Another good rain Wednesday night.

Many farmers are now busy harvesting.

Andy Tynan was over from Stella Friday.

Saturday of next week is the glorious Fourth.

Robert Frost and Minor Taylor drove out to Auburn Tuesday.

Mrs. Viola Wykes and family returned to Syracuse Friday.

Miss Lillian Minick has been sworn in as clerk in the postoffice.

The black rust has damaged Seymour Howe's wheat considerably.

Harry McCandless shipped a car of corn to Burlington Wednesday.

We had another glorious rain Sunday night. Almost an inch of rain fell.

Hon. T. J. Majors was in town Friday, talking McKinley and protection.

Mrs. J. H. Linn went to Lincoln Monday, to visit relatives for a few days.

The republican state convention meets at Lincoln Wednesday of next week.

Rev. C. H. Gilmore is one of the orators of the day at Brownville on the Fourth.

There will be no services at the M. M. church, at Nemaha, next Sunday evening.

Stephen Huntington went to Auburn last Saturday, and visited his uncle, J. W. Huntington, until Monday.

Tom Clark returned from Omaha last Saturday, having refused to accept the position offered him on the B. & M.

Rev. C. H. Gilmore, Rev. J. D. Strong and John H. Steuteville are to be the orators of the day at Brownville on the Fourth.

The Brownville people extend a hearty invitation to the citizens of Nemaha to join with them in celebrating the Fourth of July.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Veeder drove up to Peru last Saturday evening to attend the installation of the officers of the Masonic and Eastern Star lodges.

Judge J. H. Broady, of Lincoln, was in town Thursday, and gave THE ADVERTISER a very pleasant call. The judge is a strong free silver advocate.

Another silver medal contest was held at the Cumberland Presbyterian church Tuesday night. One of Casner Barnes' daughters was the successful contestant.

Dr. and Mrs. W. W. Keeling returned from South Dakota Friday morning, after a visit of two weeks and a half with their two sons and daughter, who are living in that state.

Andy Jarvis brought in a sample of wheat, Wednesday, gathered from his father's field. The sample is excellent, well filled long heads, and the kernels plump. Andy says it will yield 30 to 35 bushels per acre.

John R. Maddox and family drove in from Auburn last Sunday, and were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Crother. They intended going home that night but on account of the rain they remained until the next day.

Marshall Webb and Rufus Rowen received a fine new Gaar, Scott & Co. threshing machine and 16 horse power engine Tuesday. The machine is said to be the finest in the county, and is of the latest patents, saving the work of several men running it.

FORTY YEARS OLD.

THE ADVERTISER is forty years old, this week completing volume 40. This is an advanced age for a newspaper in the west, and few can boast of such long life.

The family of John H. Dreury, deceased, desire us to return sincere thanks to the many kind friends and neighbors who rendered such valuable assistance during the sickness, death and burial of the husband and father.

The following officers were elected at the meeting of the M. E. Ladies' Aid Society last Thursday:
 President—Mrs. Ollie Scovill.
 Vice President—Mrs. Ann Maxwell.
 Secretary—Mrs. M. A. Woodward
 Treasurer—Mrs. Sarah Watson.

Among the new Nebraska breeders we might mention Mr. J. H. Seid, of Nemaha City, Neb. Mr. Seid breeds Duroc-Jerseys and Polands and has some very good stock and we predict for him a successful future. Watch for his announcement in next issue.—Western Swine Breeder.

O. A. Corbin, of Johnson county, announces himself as a candidate for the republican nomination for float representative from Nemaha and Johnson counties. Mr. Corbin was float representative eight years ago, and made a good representative. If elected he will serve the people faithfully.

While wading through Nemaha county mud recently we ran across a breeder of Berkshires whose farm is two and a half miles northwest of Nemaha City, Neb. He has a small but select herd of Berkshires and may be depended on to do his share toward booming the popular breed of hogs. He will be with us next month, when we will have more to say about his herd.—Western Swine Breeder.

The above refers to C. Shuck, breeder of fine Berkshire hogs.

NOTICE OF DISSOLUTION.

The copartnership heretofore existing between James A. Titus and Henry E. Williams under the firm name of Titus & Williams, is this day dissolved by mutual consent.

James A. Titus is authorized to settle all claims against, or to receive all amounts due the above firm.
 Nemaha, Neb., June 25, 1896.
 JAMES A. TITUS.
 H. E. WILLIAMS.

Mart May was on the war path Saturday, after he got THE ADVERTISER. He says anybody would be foolish to raise a racket about hogs, at the present low prices, but it is some of his best frogs that Marshall Pryor has. We explained to him that we were too busy in taking care of our rheumatism to look after the paper last week, and finally got him cooled down so he accepted our apology. But it is frogs and not hogs that he is fussing about.

We have received from Geo. B. Moore, formerly editor of the Granger, a copy of the "Official Journal of the Memorial Day exercises of G. A. R., Department of Massachusetts, issued by John A. Andrew Post No. 15." The Journal contains the official orders of the different posts, and is illustrated with engravings of the commanders. Mr. Moore is commander of John A. Andrew post, and his familiar countenance is shown on the first page.

We were pleased on Monday to receive a call from A. J. Skeen, who was a resident of Nemaha county for a long time but who moved to Kansas several years ago. Andy used to be a democrat, but is now one of the standbys of the Republican party in Kansas, and says that state is sure to go for McKinley and protection. He is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John G. Skeen, and his brother, Ben T. Skeen, and at the same time talking favorably of McIntosh & Peters, live stock commission merchants of Kansas City, for which firm he is solicitor.

Ripans Tabules: at druggists.

The firm of Titus & Williams has dissolved partnership, James A. Titus selling his interest to Henry E. Williams. The former will retire from the mercantile business, for a while at least. Mr. Williams is moving the stock of goods to Shuburt, where he will go into business again. We regret very much to see this move, as this firm is the oldest one in town, except J. B. Hoover, and one of the oldest in the county. Mr. Titus has been in business for so many years that the town will seem strange without him. Henry Williams has been connected with the store for about seventeen years. May success attend both of these gentlemen in whatever undertaking they may follow.

RESOLUTIONS.

Resolution of respect, by Victory Lodge No. 195, I. O. O. F.

WHEREAS, It has pleased Almighty God in His divine wisdom to remove by death our brother and associate, J. H. Dreury, and

WHEREAS, We fully realize the sorrow his sudden and unexpected death has caused to his many relatives and friends, be it

Resolved, that we deeply deplore the loss of our brother, J. H. Dreury, and that we fully realize his merits as a brother, and that his family has sustained the loss of a kind and loving husband and father.

Resolved, that we extend to the relatives and friends, our sincere and earnest sympathy in their sad and sudden bereavement.

Resolved that a copy of these resolutions be furnished the family of the deceased brother and to THE NEBRASKA ADVERTISER and that these resolutions be also entered upon the minutes of the lodge.

On Wednesday evening last there was a quiet but elegant wedding in Christ church. The bride, Miss Ruth Marie Holmes, during the time she has made Ontario her home, has gained many friends, and the bridegroom, Menzo D. Moyer, although only a resident of Ontario for the last few months, has established already an enviable reputation as an active business man. The impressive and beautiful marriage ritual of the Episcopal church was performed by the Rev. Henderson Judd, and in the absence of the bride's relatives, who live in Nebraska, the Rev. R. H. Gushee gave away the blushing bride, who looked lovely in a handsomely brocaded white silk dress ornamented with rare lace seventy years old, the handiwork of the bride's grandmother. The groom was handsome and smiling also, but grooms do not count for much at such a ceremony, everyone's eyes are fixed on the fair bride. Mr. Frank Buren acted as best man and Miss Lola Eels as bridesmaid. Mr. Quibell presided at the organ Mr. and Mrs. Moyer will be at home Wednesdays after June 27. Residence Fern avenue and D street.—Ontario (Cal.) Observer, June 17th.
